NOTICE.—
We hereby notify the public that, from and after this date, we employ no agents for the sale of Gregory's Dyspeptic Mixture.
Neither are there any interested parties with us. We are the inventors, sole proprietors, and only manufacturers of the GENUINE ARTICLE, and our individual signatures accompany each bottle—and all orders and remittances must be made to Drs. W. W. & R. E. GREGORY, at Charlotte, N. C.
In assuming the entire charge of this invaluable remedy, we present it to you in a new dress, and have reduced the price to $1 50 per bottle, to bring it within the reach of all. In the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle will be seen the certificates of the most distinguished physicians, judges and divines, in the State, and we only ask for it a trial, that dyspeptics may be convinced of its curative virtues.
A liberal discount to the trade.

CAROLINA TIMES.

CHARLOTTE.

R. P. WARING, Editor.

Wednesday, November, 3, 1869.

The Lancaster Road Again.

We see that the Camden convention has already been held, and we are informed from the published proceedings that "through some misinformation as to the day of the meeting" none but the Lancaster delegates were present. It is now the plan, as we learn from these proceedings, to build the road only from Camden to Charlotte via Lancaster, connecting it with the South Carolina Railroad at Kingsville. How such a railroad could possibly benefit this city is much more than we can conceive. It would neither open up to us a new country for trade, nor give us another outlet to the sea; but unquestionably take from us some of the trade that we now enjoy. The revival of the Wateree Road and an abandonment of the Central route destroys all interest we have in that Road, and it becomes us to throw our influence for the Road to Cades, which is an air-line to the sea with two outlets—Charleston and Georgetown. Since the complication in regard to the North Carolina Railroad, this line assumes an importance to this city not heretofore contemplated. From here to Georgetown there is no competing point for our trade, and the road will pass through one of the richest and most heavily timbered sections, in the South, one whose products are chiefly cotton, rice and naval stores; and, one consequently that must afford the very best market for the meat and bread stuffs of this region and the upper country. We must favor this road in self-defence, for if we do not give Laneaster the assistance needed to secure this route, she will certainly unite with Camden and build the Wateree Road which will take from us the trade of that entire section.

Stick to Your Business.

The secret of success, says the Richmond Dispatch, in this world is to stick to your business—that which you learn in early life, and which you understand. One of the greatest evils in this country is the disposition to quit a business we know to take up one at which somebody has made a fortune. How did he make it? By understanding it.—You go to it to serve an apprenticeship, and before you learn it you may lose all you have, and then not succeed. This is like the boy who drops his line where another has got a bite. Who ever saw such a boy catch a fish?

Pertinent to this brief homily in view of the subject of agriculture, now uppermost in public interest, is the advice recently given by Governor WALKER to the young men of the country—not to be too ready to forsake their paternal acres and go to the large cities to seek fortunes. The same advice has been recently given by Governor HOFFMAN and ex-Governor SEYMOUR in agricultural addresses. At best, in regard to human happiness, it is a great sacrifice to surrender the healthful and virtuous occupations of rural life for the trials, temptations, and unnatural conventionalisms of cities. Even with success, it may be seriously doubted whether a man is compensated for the exchange. He may make money, and surround himself with all the gilded comforts and bright lights of city opulences, but what heart so circumstanced has not sighed a thousand times for the sweet scenes of youth—the clear waters, the green fields, the buoyant health and innocent joys of rural life? Many a millionaire has set a value upon these lost treasures greater than his all wealth told in gold.

Agriculture is the true occupation of man. From that he derives his greatest forces, physical and mental. From that society is replenished; but for the reinvigoration that other pursuits receive from it they would decline into apathy and imbecilty.

But it is not wise in the tillers of the soil to be discontented with their lot, and to think that there are others more happy. They will make a great mistake. And whenever this propensity gets too strong a foot-hold those who wander from the country to the crushing and grinding marts of commerce will find it little better than charging a powerful battery. A few may scale wall and wave the banner from the top, but the great bulk will pour out their life blood, die in the struggle, and go down unknown and uncared for to oblivion.

Discontent is misery. It is a great fault of mankind; but of all the pursuits in life the farmer has least cause to be discontented. He should cling to his many sources of happiness with devotion. He should study his noble calling with enthusiastic love, be content with enough, and, sheltered in the serenity of his honest home and toil, pass his days in peace, and be gathered to the tomb of his fathers amidst the unaffected griefs of kindred and friends.

Bull-ing them up.

The following dispatch, says the Raleigh Sentinel, sent by Governor Holden to New York, for the purpose, of course, of inspiring confidence in North Carolina bonds in that market, seems not to have been very successful in accomplishing the object, as the bonds, three days after the dispatch was sent, receded from the little advance they had gained, to a figure lower than ever:

"RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 27, 1869.

"To Henry Clews & Co., Bankers, N. Y.

"The State will pay all her debts, principal and interest. The interest on the special tax bonds will be paid, no matter what happens, and do not see why the special tax should not go up to eighty or more.

W. W. HOLDEN,

"Governor of North Carolina."

This banking firm of Henry Clews & Co., has been made the financial Agent of the State for the sale of our special tax bonds, and we have been informed, on what we consider good authority, that an arrangement has been entered into with that firm by all the Railroad Companies of this State, holding special tax bonds, except the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Road, that they are to have all they can get over 56 cents in the dollar, for selling the bonds. We do not think Clews & Co., will realize a fortune by the arrangement, but still we cannot endorse the action of any set of men who may assume to themselves the prerogative of placeing this arbitrary estimate upon the credit of the State.

GOOD FOR UNION.—Whilst Judge Buxton was holding Court last week, in Union County, the proceedings were interrupted by a noise in the Court yard. The Sheriff was ordered to arrest the offenders, and going out he promptly returned with three men in custody. One was a large, rough looking, ex-gray-jacket, another was a one armed ditto, and the third was a middle aged man known as a drunkard and a Radical. Before it being demanded of them why they had been disturbing the Court, the large gray jacket, with a great deal of coolness and dignity, spoke as follows: "May it please your Honor, I was as good a Union man as ever fluttered, and tried hard to keep off the war, but when it did come I went in and did my best for the South. A little while ago, near the door of the Court House, I saw this man (pointing to the Radical,) insulting and tearing up a picture of Gen. Lee, I couldn't stand that, and my one armed friend, here, undertook to resent it too, but I knew he was not able to do it properly with one arm. So I shoved him aside and was preparing to lick the man who did it when the Sheriff arrested me. And may it please your Honor, I hope God may strike me down if I don't pitch into any man, anywhere, and at any time, who insults General Bob Lee in my presence!"

His Honor fined him five dollars, which he handed over to the clerk—perhaps all he had—and walked out amid the deep but silent feeling of the crowd.

Poor fellow, he had a soul! He belongs to no "Ring," does not sell the best feelings of his heart for gold or office, but treasures up as something sacred, the memories of the glorious and unfortunate past, filled with its visions of heroes living and dead. What a simple fellow! Yet let us thank God that there is such simplicity left among us. It will grow in Heaven's good time.

Exchange.

As there is a scheme on foot to defeat the confirmation of Robeson as Secretary of the Navy, there may possibly be a vacancy in the Cabinet soon after the meeting of Congress. Parties who desire to secure the appointment should go forward with their houses and lots without delay.

The first of the new one dollar legal-tender notes were issued Friday. They are a decided improvement over the old notes.

The Lease of the North Carolina Railroad--Its Effect upon Charlotte.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—The consummation of the proposed lease of the North Carolina Railroad will be ruinous to Charlotte. It settles the question at once and finally, that it will not be the terminus of the Air-line Railroad from Atlanta. Dr. Hawkins and the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad are the worst enemies in the State to the Richmond and Danville Railroad and the Air-line Railroad from Atlanta. If Charlotte is the terminus, it will be necessary to use ninety-three miles of the North Carolina Railroad.

The Air-line road will never place itself within the control of Dr. Hawkins, and the managers would be fools if they did.

The consequence will be, that as soon as this lease, if effected, the Air-line is necessarily forced from Charlotte to Salem and Danville.—We are no longer on the great through route, but Charlotte becomes at once simply the terminus of a branch of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. Now, is it not time we were waking up to the importance of the defeat of this iniquitous lease, which has excited such universal indignation throughout the State. Are we prepared to make this sacrifice of our city, which promises ere long to rival Atlanta, simply to put money in the pocket of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad? Every citizen of the State has a common interest in the North Carolina Railroad, for it is State property, and we should protest against its going into the hands of Dr. Hawkins and the "ring."—Every stockholder in the Road here is opposed to the lease, and, though we own no stock, let us join with them in condemnation of it as against every interest of our city and the State. It is disastrous to the stockholders, to the State, and ruinous to our city; then let us join the universal outcry against it and defeat it if possible.

CITIZEN.

Millard Fillmore.

A Louisville correspondent of the Cincinnati COMMERCIAL gives the following pen picture of Hon. Millard Fillmore, as he appeared at the Commercial Convention:

"Millard Fillmore is as faultless an old gentleman as there is in the world. His garments of black broadcloth, immaculate linen and standing collar, black satin stock and neat glossy boots are spotlessly perfect, and fit without a single wrinkle too much. He is tall, well proportioned, and inclines to an embonpoint that is just right to a penny weight. His foot is small and well turned, instep arched and is encased in number six boot.

Mr. Fillmore is a blonde who, on the verge of seventy, retains his original clearness of complexion. Extreme nicety, in a large sense, overspread him. His rather small, steel-blue eyes are still, clear and alert, his teeth white and even, his hair moderately plentiful, almost snowy in hue, and carefully cut to a standard, neither long nor short. Only at the crown is there a partial thinning out. His ample double chin and large, oval, pink florid cheeks are firm and fair in texture; and have none of the purplish tints of high living. Mr. Fillmore is evidently a generous liver, scrupulously temperate in diet and scrupulously nice in dress. He looks like an immaculate distinguished man, produced by a republic, whose aim as a public officer is to be always absolutely constitutional and correct, and as a gentleman, to be blindly courteous and solidly respectable.

His front face is open and dignified, and his profile with its convex aquiline nose and smooth-shaved ample double chin is decidedly patrician. For a man who has seen so much of political life, Mr. Fillmore is remarkably modest. When introduced by Gov. Stevenson yesterday, he blushed deeply, once or twice indefinitely stammered over uttering the wrong word. On subsequently taking his seat on a small dias surrounded by growing shrubbery, on the stage, the rear legs of his chair slipped off the back of the platform, and the ex-President was saved from a most unseemly fall only by the upright ceders. He was assisted to rise by the gentlemen nearest on the platform, and as the convention laughed rather broadly over the incident his face turned as deep a crimson as ever mantled the face of a girl.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Malarious Fogs.

Countless millions of cubic feet of malarious vapor reek from the moist earth every twenty-four hours during the month of November. This evaporated moisture is the active principle which begets fever and ague bilious remittents, indigestion, dysentery, bilious cholic, rheumatism, and many other ailments which prevail more generally in the Fall than at other seasons, and some of which, in low, swampy regions and new clearings, take the form of virulent epidem. The best safeguard against these complaints, as evidenced by the experience of a long series of years, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most pleasant and at the same time one of the most efficient of all vegetable tonics. The invigoration of the system is manifestly the best means of defending it against the causes of sickness, whether constitutional or casual. Nature, as every pathologist knows, is the most determined enemy of disease, and the paroxysms of an acute malady are in most instances the consequences of the efforts she makes to conquer the foe. The great object, therefore, of preventive treatment is to reinforce the system, and it is accomplished thoroughly, rapidly and safely, by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This powerful tonic contains also an aperient and corrective principle. It is no less valuable as a regulator and purifier than as an invigorant, and there is no danger of exciting the brain or over-stimulating the circulation by employing it as an antidote.

What the Druggists Say.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Aug. 14, 1867.

Gents—I have been dealing in proprietary medicines for the last four ten years, and have never before found a preparation that would equal your "Pain Killer." It not only sells very rapidly, but gives the most perfect satisfaction in every case that has come to my knowledge.

In my practice I very seldom prescribe patent medicine, but, having entire confidence in your "Pain Killer," and knowing that it possesses valuable medical proportions, I freely use it in my daily practice. It is the most standard medicine I have for sale, and many families in this vicinity would as soon think of being out of BEEF or BREAD as without a bottle of Pain Killer in the house.

Yours, very truly,

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D.

C. P. Benson & Co., of Charlottesville, Va., write—Your Pain Killer is decidedly the most popular proprietary medicine sold in this State.

☞ Boots and Shoes of all kinds at the Lowest prices at H. & B. Emanuel.

We call the attention of our business men to a communication in another column signed "Citizen."—The lease of the North Carolina Railroad is a very serious matter, and deserves the earnest consideration particularly of every shipper in this portion of the State. Public meetings should be held in every country protesting against this iniquity.

☞ Go to H. & B. Emanuel's to buy blankets.

We were glad to see Capt. Green in our city yesterday, and had the pleasure of a very satisfactory talk with him on the subject of the Georgetown Road. Capt. Green is a gentleman of high tone, and a skillful and able engineer. We trust our capitalists and business men will encourage him in his efforts to build that road.

☞ Flannels of all kinds, at H. & B. Emanuel's.

We are glad that our old friend, R. M. Robinson, has returned and opened a tailor shop. He is as well known to this community as a skillful artist, that the announcement is all that is necessary to secure him a run of custom.

☞ Dress Goods in endless variety, at H. & B. Emanuel's.

THE clergymen of Bucyrus, Ohio, six in number, have published a strong protest against "dancing, at any time or any where, as an amusement.

A ROMAN Catholic priest in Bolivia, having become a Mason, has been excommunicated by his Bishop, who has ordered him to be imprisoned "until he should abjure Masonry, and fulfill the penance imposed upon him."

Mr. margrave a citizen of Jefferson county Tenn., is in his ninety-seventh year, and has not tasted animal food for fifty years, and as he believes, has not eaten as much as one pound in his life. He is temperate in his habits, using no spirits of any kind, and uses tobacco moderately. He is a bachelor.

A letter from Louisville to the Macon (Ga.) Messenger says: "General S. B. Buckner, too, is here. His property in Kentucky has been restored to him, and he intends to make Louisville his residence. He has not recovered his Chicago estates, which are of immense value; but it is the opinion of leading lawyers that he will recover them whenever the case can be brought before the courts. When he came South he conveyed the property, which really belonged to his wife, to her brother to hold for her. The brother subsequently married, entered the Union army, and was killed at Gettysburg. His widow had a son a few months after his death, and it was claimed that the child was the heir of all his property. Shortly after, the child died, and the mother became his heir; and not long after that the mother died, and her father now claims to be heir of all his daughter's property, and consequently of all General Buckner's property, derived as I have detailed. Had the brother lived there would not have been any trouble, because he would not have hesitated a moment to reconvey the property."

It is ascertained on thoroughly reliable authority that the President and Mrs. Grant have ceased all social connection with Mr. A. R. Corbin, of New York. It is also ascertained that when the President sold his house in Washington to General Sherman he gave his wife $12,000 of the proceeds, which she forthwith transferred to Mr. Corbin, then present in Washington on his bridal trip, to be used in a New Jersey real estate speculation. This is the only Money ever given to him by any of the President's family.

It is said that "poor Carlotta" cannot live through the winter.

Young ladies, the best of all ways to lengthen your days is to go to bed early and never wear stays.

Ruth must have been rude to Boaz when she pulled his ears and trod on his corn.

From the Boston Evening Times.

A strange Story--A Boston Lady Sees a Vision on the House-top.

On Friday morning last, at about four o'clock, a lady resident of the West End of the city, having occasion to ascend the roof of her dwelling, beheld a brilliant reflection of a light of many colors, like the rainbow, on the white linen hanging on her lines, and raising her darkened eyes in bewilderment to the sky, was obliged to cover them with her hands on account of the dazzling effulgence and splender which met her view, and tranxfixed, as with a dart, her very soul.

Quivering with astonishment and fear, she hastened down stairs and alarmed the inmates of the house, who, eager to behold what she had failed to portray in words, were astonished at seeing in the firmament the blazing form of a man, as resplendent as the sun in its meridian glory. Round about him the forms of gorgeously attired infants of angelic beauty hovered, and beneath them were seen the profiles of two women in kneeling posture.

One man, a Mr. Wiggin, also a resident of the West End, and a very trustworthy gentleman, possessing more esprit present than the other, burnt a piece of glass, through which were perceivable these words: "Come, now in the accepted time; come now!" These were in very large green letters, which he says he plainly saw. There were other words, but our informant could not decipher them.

"In the last days there shall be signs in the heavens." Surely, the end must be approaching when justice shall no longer be tempered with mercy, but with the wrath of the Great Judge of all judges—

"Who shall not fall nor be discouraged
Till he hath set judgment in the earth."

We have made inquiries concerning the parties alluded to above, and find that they are not Spiritualists or Second Adventists, and are not given to nightmare. They are worthy Methodist people. Had only one person seen the sight it might not be considered remarkable, but several saw the forms distinctly, and the sight made an impression on their minds. We leave it for the meteorologists to determine what the phenomenon was.

TO THE WORKING CLASS.—We are now prepared to furnish all classes with constant employment at home, the whole of the time or for the spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Persons of either sex easily earn from 50c. to $5 per evening, and a proportional sum by devoting their whole time to the business. Boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. That all who see this notice may send their address, and test the business, we make this unparalleled offer: To such as are not well satisfied, we will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing. Full particulars, a valuable sample, which will do to commence work on and a copy of The People's Literary Companion—one of the largest and best family newspapers published—all sent free by mail.—Reader, if you want permanent, profitable work, address E. CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF

FORTY PER CENT.

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

PRUDENCE AND CAUTION

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF

ITS SUCCESS.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

AND GAS BURNERS,

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

If your Watch should need Repairing,
Don't get mad and go to swearing;
Just take it into Hales' Shop,
He will fix it so it will not stop.
He warrants his work all for a year,
When it is used with proper care.
He will charge no more than what's fair,
He deals with all men on the square.

Having made extensive and important improvements in their manufactory, both in machinery and additional facilities, in order to meet the increasing demand for their unrivalled

PIANO-FORTES,

Hereby announce that we are now enabled to produce a Piano that can be excelled by none in the market, and which we offer to the public at the extremely low price of $450,

These Pianos are made of the best seasoned materials and first class workmanship, are of rosewood, round cornered, with carved legs and lyre, overstrung, full iron frame, and have all the latest improvements, and have universally met the approbation of all the musical profession who have used them.

THEY ARE FULLY WARRENTED

and we have no hesitation in pronouncing these Pianos the cheapest and best first class instrument now offered to the public.

We are also Importers and Manufacturers of Musical Instruments, Strings, and every variety of Musical Merchandise of which we have the largest assortment. We call especial attention to our German Silver and Brass Band Instruments, which are distinguished for their power and sweetness of tone, and the great ease with which every note is produced. Every instrument warranted to give satisfaction. [July 1-1y
